DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restriction

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372. This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claims 1-5, drawn to a monocellular or multicellular organism.

Group II, claims 6-13, drawn to an isocitrate dehydrogenase gene, vector, and transformed organism containing said isocitrate dehydrogenase gene.

Group III, claim 14, drawn to a process for the production of riboflavin.

Group IV, claims 15-18, drawn to a process for preparing a riboflavin-producing monocellular or multicellular organism.

Group V, claim 19, drawn to a use of a microorganism for producing riboflavin.

Group VI, claim 20, drawn to a use of an isocitrate dehydrogenase gene for preparing an organism.

Group VII, claim 21, drawn to a use of a vector for preparing an organism.

The inventions listed as Groups I-VII do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

The claims are not linked by a special technical feature because they do not constitute an advance over the prior art. Birgett et al. cited in the Search Report of PCT/EP00/07370 teach that IDP3 encodes a NADP-dependent isocitrate dehydrogenase which is an "allelic variation" of the claimed isocitrate dehydrogenase gene recited in claim 6 or is a "substantially equal working DNA sequence" of the claimed isocitrate dehydrogenase gene recited in claim 7.

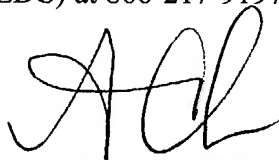

Because the inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have required a separate status in the art as shown by their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 1652

2. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
3. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
4. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Christián L Fronda whose telephone number is (571)272-0929.
